

NINTH ANNUAL STAND UP AWARD NOMINEE ESSAY

In 2008, the Penn State Rock Ethics Institute inaugurated the Stand Up Award to honor Penn State undergraduate students who have demonstrated courage, fortitude, and ethical leadership by taking a stand for a person, a cause, or a belief. This award and the individuals it honors should remind the entire Penn State community of how often the extraordinary act is possible in ordinary circumstances.

Nominees for this award must have demonstrated ethical leadership, either at Penn State or in the community, and should have fostered the ethical development of their peers. Although your nominator will provide a letter on your behalf, ethical leaders should be able to describe their actions, articulate their reasons for acting, and discuss how these actions exemplify ethical leadership in their own words. The following three-part essay gives you the opportunity to do that. Please complete each part as thoroughly as you can, while keeping the total count for all three parts at 750 words or less. Before submitting, be sure to read the conditions outlined below and either initial or check the box at the end of this form to indicate your agreement.

In order to understand the Rock Ethics Institute's conception of ethical leadership we encourage students to view our Ethical Leadership Education module at http://bit.ly/Ethical_Leadership.

Conditions of Award:

In addition to attending the award ceremony on April 17, 2016, Stand Up Awardees will be photographed for posters publicizing the award, and interviewed for a video presentation. Examples of previous posters and videos are available at www.StandUpPSU.com.

Please initial or check the box below to indicate (a) that you are willing and able to participate in the award ceremony, to be photographed for the poster, and interviewed for the video, and (b) that you agree to give the Rock Ethics Institute editorial discretion in relation to both the interview and the poster (including the design of the poster and choice of image). If you have any questions about these matters, please contact Rob Peeler (rjp218@psu.edu), Marketing and Communications Specialist, Rock Ethics Institute.

By initialing or checking this box, I indicate my willingness to be considered for the 2016 Stand Up Award under the above-specified conditions. This form is editable and must be checked in order for your application to be processed.

Essay Part I: Use the space below to describe the actions that are most relevant to your nomination for the Stand Up Award. This form is editable and typing your response below is preferred.
